Look at the ways different sports people reacted to losing their game. Talk about which you think are acceptable and which are not.

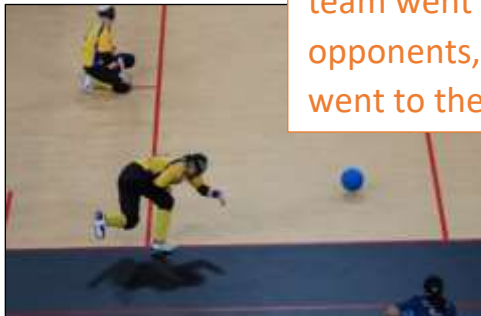

Simon lost a tennis match. He hit the floor with his racket before throwing it and storming off the court.

Ushi's cricket team lost. She lay on the floor and cried. She refused to get up when her teammates came to get her.

Niambra's volley ball team lost their match. They were disappointed and Niambra had a tear in her eye but they all lined up to shake hands with the winners.

Leah took part in a goalball match. Her team lost. Whilst her team went to congratulate their opponents, Leah just left and went to the changing rooms.

Mateo came second in his gymnastics competition. He made sure he found the winner to say 'well done' and thanked him for competing!
