SEN Support for Pupils with Specific Learning Difficulties

SENDIASS is offering a free, relaxed online session for parents and carers in Suffolk explaining the graduated approach to SEN support and how this works for pupils with specific learning difficulties, including dyslexia.

This session will be supported by the Lead Teacher for the specialist education outreach service for pupils with specific learning difficulties.

The session will explore:

- The key principles of SEN support and whole class approaches;
- The 4 stages of the graduated cycle of support and how you and your child are involved;
- Examples of support schools can reasonably offer;
- What happens if a pupil needs further support;
- Ideas for helping your child at home.
